

THE DIXIECUPS

The Dixie Cups hold the impressive achievement of unseating the Beatles from their number one spot on the charts in 1964! The song "Chapel Of Love" went to #1 and continues to be rejuvenated by movies and television such as "Betsy's Wedding" "Father Of The Bride" and "Full Metal Jacket."

The hit "People Say" went on to be a gold record and "Iko Iko" continues to remain resilient through movies and television in "The Big Easy" "Rain Man" "Fresh Prince Of Bel-Air" and many more. Additional hits include: "You Should Have Seen

The Way He Looked At Me" and "Little Bell." With their bright, beautiful and colorful costumes along with artistic versatility, they add the finishing touches with entertaining audience participation. The Dixie Cups main goal is to bring a smile to your face with their music!
