

HANK THOMPSON

With Hank Thompson's 1989 election to the prestigious "Country Music Hall Of Fame," came the crowning touch of his first six decades as a major contributing force and influence in the music world. Hank is known for his classic hits: "The Wild Side Of Life" "Humpty Dumpty Heart" "Oklahoma Hills" and "Six Pack To Go." Hank Thompson and the Brazos Valley Boys achieved staggering "firsts" in the music industry. The first act to tour with a sound and lighting system, first to record a live album, first live country show in Las Vegas and first to perform on a color broadcast of a television variety show! A gifted songwriter with record sales well over 60 million internationally, Hank Thompson's career has impacted on six decades of recorded music history. New generations of fans are eagerly snapping up recently released anthologies of Hank's music packaged by Capitol and Curb Records. Hank Thompson is still busy making "new history" with the music he loves!
